1 (Proceedings commenced at 3:19 p.m.)

2 THE CLERK: This is 13-CR-5164, Wei v. Halal 71
3 Kitchen. Civil cause for inquest. Counsel, please state
4 your appearance for the record.

5 MR. HANG: Jiang Hang from Hang & Associates, PLLC
6 representing plaintiff in this case.

7 THE COURT: All right. Good afternoon. You may be
8 seated.

9 MR. HANG: Thank you.

10 THE COURT: All right. This inquest was scheduled
11 for 3:00. It's now 3:20. The defendant has not appeared in 12 this case and I have not gotten any phone calls from anyone
13 representing the defendant in this case, so I guess at this
14 point we can proceed with the inquest.

15 So counsel, maybe just for the record summarize the 16 nature of the claims and the damages that you are requesting.

17 MR. HANG: Yes. This is a wage/hour action.

18 We -- our plaintiff here, Mr. Wei, is a delivery
19 guy in the restaurant, Halal Kitchen, and they pay him about 20 $1,900 per month as a salary, but the client here, the 21 plaintiff here works about 70 -- 73 hours per week, so the 22 restaurant didn't pay the client overtime.

23 So we are seeking overtime under FLSA and under New 24 York Labor Law. We are also seeking (indiscernible) hours.
25 Plaintiff works about six days a week, 73 hours in total.

1 Then he -- so he works for more than ten hours per day.

2 We also seeking the pre-trial interest
3 reimbursement for the tools of the trade. Last one, we
4 seek -- we're also seeking the notice and the statement,
5 statute of damages and failure to provide notice of statement
6 according to NYLL to the plaintiff. We're also seeking the 7 legal expenses and attorney's fees.

8 THE COURT: Okay. Let me just -- why don't we 9 start with the overtime hours.

10 First of all, how long did Mr. Wei work for Halal
11 Kitchen?

12 MR. HANG: Yes. Your Honor, if you look at
13 Exhibit 8, I have a summary, because Exhibit 8 is damages
14 calculation I prepared in June 6, 2014. The first paragraph 15 is so that --

16 THE COURT: Exhibit 8?

17 MR. HANG: Exhibit 8.

18 THE COURT: Eight. Okay.

19 MR. HANG: To the motion. It's Jiang Hang's
20 declaration in support of motion for summary judgment.

21 THE COURT: Right.

22 MR. HANG: It's Exhibit 8.

23 THE COURT: Right. Okay.

24 MR. HANG: And plaintiff worked there from
25 August 4th, 2012 through March 30, 2013, so a total of 34

1 weeks and he was paid $1,900 per month.

2 So I calculate his salary is, you know, 19
3 multiplied by 5, divided by 52 -- his regular rate is $10.96
4 per hour. There's a typo.

5 It should be $438.46 divided by 40, not divided by
6 10. He started at 40. So if divided by 40, the hourly rate
7 will be $10.96 and he worked there about 73 hours per week,
8 six days a week -- it's more than ten hours.

9 THE COURT: Okay. So you're seeking a spread of 10 hours for each six-days --

11 MR. HANG: Yes.

12 THE COURT: -- each of those six days? Okay.

13 And since we're on that Exhibit, you have here A is 14 overtime back pay --

15 MR. HANG: Yes.

16 THE COURT: -- of 18,433.64. We calculated it a
17 little bit differently, but we'll put that aside for a
18 minute.

19 And then you're seeking the same amount for 20 overtime under the FLSA --

21 MR. HANG: Right.

22 THE COURT: -- and then overtime under the New York
23 Labor Law. So explain to me why you get it three times.

24 MR. HANG: Yes. I think in the quarter
25 (indiscernible) you should word it (indiscernible) because

1 the damages are under the FLSA and the NYLL. The two
2 different damages so it's different purposes and there's
3 plenty of cases from the Eastern District of New York where
4 award both legal damages.

5 THE COURT: But I don't -- okay. Let -- put that
6 aside for a minute. But I don't understand the difference
7 between overtime back pay and overtime under the FLSA.

8 MR. HANG: Oh. I'm sorry. That's liquidated
9 damages. I should --

10 THE COURT: B should be liquidated damages?

11 MR. HANG: Liquidated damages. I'm sorry.

12 THE COURT: Okay. That's kind of what I thought
13 you were doing.

14 MR. HANG: Okay. Yes. Yes.

15 THE COURT: Okay. All right.

16 MR. HANG: Same thing. C is liquidated damages
17 overtime and then under the NYLL. It should be liquidated
18 damages under FLSA. Liquidated damages, C, under NYLL.

19 THE COURT: And you have case authority that you
20 get both? Because I've written on this before and come out
21 the other way.

22 So if you have case authority that suggests you get
23 both liquidated damages under the FLSA and under New York
24 Labor Law and pre-judgment interest, because you're also
25 asking for that, I'd like to see the cases.

1 MR. HANG: Yes. I didn't bring with me now.

2 THE COURT: That's okay. You can put it in a
3 letter.

4 MR. HANG: Yes. I have. I have it. Yes.

5 THE COURT: Okay.

6 MR. HANG: I can put it in a letter and attach the 7 cases.

8 THE COURT: Okay. That would be -- well, you don't
9 even have to do -- just give me the case citations. We can 10 find them.

11 MR. HANG: Also, I have another -- another -- just 12 mention to the -- I have another before the -- same type of 13 case in the Southern District, New York. They awarded to 14 both liquidated damages and FLSA and the NYLL.

15 THE COURT: Okay. Well, as I said, I'll look at 16 it.

17 MR. HANG: Yes. Yes.

18 THE COURT: Just the fact that it's in the Southern
19 District doesn't mean it's right.

20 Now with respect to the expenses which you've 21 labeled tools of the trade, explain to me what that is.

22 MR. HANG: This time probably we're not seeking for 23 this because I tried to do that expenses some, you know,
24 either credit card payment or receipts from my client and my
25 client said I couldn't. Sometimes I just buy it in cash.

1 But I don't have all the documents. I said okay. We
2 probably will not seek reimbursement expenses.

3 But that's under federal law, if you're working for 4 the employer, most time applied through the (indiscernible)
5 person. If he's working for the employer and using your own
6 vehicle through the employee, they're supposed to pay you the 7 gas, the car repair, but in this case, my client is just ride
8 an electronic bicycle.

9 And the reason my client stopped working in 10 March 30th, 2013 is that he had a bicycle accident. He was 11 hit by a car and then he stopped working for this restaurant.

12 But his bicycle was damaged and was thrown away and
13 I said you should have provided me if possible your sale
14 receipts but he said, no. I couldn't find them. So --

15 THE COURT: Okay. So you're withdrawing the --

16 MR. HANG: I probably withdraw the $200 --

17 THE COURT: -- the part of the -- Okay. All right.

18 So then I guess the last issue is the failure to 19 provide the notice. And I guess I'm a little confused as to 20 how you got to the numbers there.

21 MR. HANG: Okay. New York State -- New York law
22 says if you fail to provide proper notice, wage notice to the 23 employee, the employer shall be fined for $50 per week up to 24 $2,500 maximum and if you fail to issue a proper, legal wage
25 statements to your employees, employer is supposed to be

1 fined $100 per week up to $2,500. That's maximum.

2 THE COURT: Okay. But --

3 MR. HANG: So here -- okay.

4 THE COURT: Yes. But here you ask for $4,200 --

5 MR. HANG: Yes.

6 THE COURT: -- which --

7 MR. HANG: Okay. The total week is 34 weeks so I
8 will modify the 50. That's a failure to provide the notice,
9 by 34. I come up with $1,700.

10 THE COURT: Okay.

11 MR. HANG: And then failure to provide proper
12 statements -- wage statements. That's $100 modified by -- it
13 should be by 34 because maximum is $2,500, so I just modified
14 by 25. That's the maximum amount -- $2,500. So you add them
15 together -- it's 4,200.

16 THE COURT: Actually, it doesn't fit. Okay. I
17 mean, I get a -- I get a different number altogether. I get 18 $5,100. But if you are only asking for 42, then that's fine.

19 MR. HANG: I know. But there's a maximum. There's 20 a maximum -- state law's a maximum for each violation of 21 $2,500.

22 THE COURT: Oh, I see what you're saying. In other
23 words --

24 MR. HANG: Yes.

25 THE COURT: Okay.

1 THE COURT: Yes.

2 THE COURT: I got it.

3 MR. HANG: Although I would like to have 51.

4 THE COURT: I got it.

5 MR. HANG: But I have to be honest.

6 THE COURT: Okay. Twenty -- so you're saying for 7 the -- for D, section D, you're asking for 2,500 and for 8 section B, you're asking for 1,700. Right?

9 MR. HANG: Let me see. Yes. Yes. Seventeen --
10 1,700.

11 THE COURT: I got it. Okay. Now I understand what 12 you did. All right. And then And -- I'm sorry, sir. Did
13 you look at the attorney's fees part? I didn't look at that.
14 Do we have all the rate information?

15 THE CLERK: Yes.

16 THE COURT: Okay. We have an affidavit?

17 MR. HANG: Exhibit 9 is attorneys' fees.

18 THE CLERK: (Inaudible.)

19 THE COURT: Okay. All right. As long as you -- as 20 long as you're satisfied.

21 If we look through it and there's any additional
22 information, I'll try to get back to you --

23 MR. HANG: Yes.

24 THE COURT: -- as soon as possible.

25 MR. HANG: Yes.

1 THE COURT: But I really would like the case law
2 before I issue the R and R. Okay? If we could --

3 MR. HANG: It's case law on the liquidated damages,
4 correct?

5 THE COURT: Under both FLSA --

6 MR. HANG: Oh, yes.

7 THE COURT: -- and -- yes.

8 MR. HANG: Definitely.

9 THE COURT: Okay?

10 MR. HANG: I also want to explain, attorney fee,
11 I -- my hourly rate is 350 and the the Southern District
12 approved that amount. I have been practiced this for almost 13 ten years. Eight years I was associate in Epstein Becker
14 Green. It's a labor employment law firm. I represent only
15 employers and then I set up my own firm. I start last year
16 started to represent both.

17 So I explained in my affidavits -- affirmation,
18 sorry -- my attorney fee was 350. The Southern District
19 approved that and they granted 350 hourly rate.

20 THE COURT: Did you cite the case in your papers of 21 the Southern District?

22 MR. HANG: My case?

23 THE COURT: Yes.

24 MR. HANG: No, I didn't.

25 THE COURT: Do you want to give me the cite? Do

1 you know what it is?

2 MR. HANG: Uh --

3 THE COURT: You can put it in the letter.

4 MR. HANG: -- I put it in the letter.

5 THE COURT: Okay.

6 MR. HANG: Yes.

7 THE COURT: All right.

8 MR. HANG: I put it in the letter.

9 THE COURT: I'll take a look at that as well.

10 MR. HANG: Okay.

11 THE COURT: All right. Anything else?

12 MR. HANG: No. That's it.

13 THE COURT: All right. As soon as I get your 14 letter, we'll issue a report.

15 MR. HANG: And should I -- I should send a
16 letter -- a faxed letter to you. I should not file, right?
17 Right? Do I need to e-file the letter?

18 THE COURT: Yes. I think you need to e-file it --

19 MR. HANG: Oh. Okay.

20 THE COURT: -- and send it to the defendant.

21 MR. HANG: Do I have to fax -- also fax a copy to 22 you, or just --

23 THE COURT: You don't have to. We'll get it off of 24 the --

25 MR. HANG: Okay.

1 THE COURT: -- ECF.

2 MR. HANG: I will do it probably this week.

3 THE COURT: Okay. That'd be great.

4 MR. HANG: By the end of this week.

5 THE COURT: All right. Thank you very much.

6 MR. HANG: Thank you.
